2007 Call Density

Jail Expenses

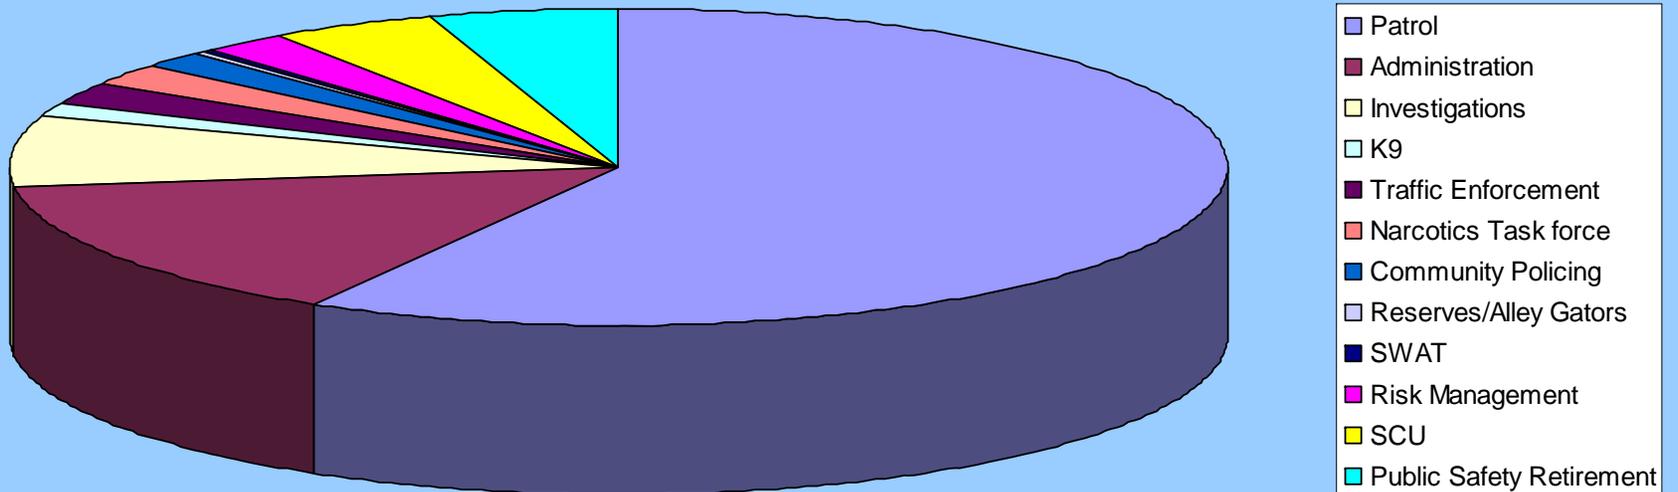

Part of doing the business of law enforcement is arresting and booking suspects of crime. This part of our business is rather expensive.

In addition to the booking and holding fees, Longview Police Department is also responsible for the medical expenses of any prisoners arrested by our agency while in custody.

In 2007, Longview Police Department spent over $908,000 on the cost of housing prisoners and their medical expenses. This is approximately 10% of our entire 2007 budget.

Electronic monitoring and day reporting (alternatives to incarceration) resulted in an additional $700 in costs.

2007-2008 General Fund Program Budget Budget

Traffic Enforcement - $425,000 -The Traffic unit consists of 2 officers on motorcycles. The unit provides additional traffic enforcement over and above that of our patrol officers. This unit was created in an effort to reduce motor vehicle accidents and improve the safety of our citizens.

Narcotics Task Force - $360,000 -Longview Police Department participates in a county-wide multi-agency drug enforcement task force. The primary mission of this unit is to perform drug interdiction of upper level drug manufacturers and distributors. The other agencies participating are Cowlitz County Sheriff, Kelso Police, and Wahkiakum County Sheriff.

Community Policing - $325,000 -Our Community Policing Program consists of two Community Service Officers who are assigned to handle lower priority patrol calls with no suspect. Also a portion of these funds are used for the operating expenses of our Satellite Office.

Reserve Unit/ Alley Gator Program - $46,000 -Reserve Officers are non-paid citizen volunteers who receive police training and supplement our full-time police officers. The Alley Gator program is another volunteer program that conducts citizen patrols throughout the city deterring crime through their presence and reporting suspicious behavior to the dispatch center.

Lower Columbia SWAT - $60,000 -Longview Police Department participates with CCSO, KPD and Cowlitz 2 Fire & Rescue in a county-wide SWAT team which responds to critical incidents with the goal of safe resolution for the community and our officers.

Risk Management - $390,000 -As part of reducing our risks, it is important to screen applicants properly, identify and investigate policy violations and investigate citizen complaints. The purpose of this program is to monitor these activities to reduce the risks in law enforcement and ensure that the highest possible standards are maintained. Several positions are partially funded by this program, they include: Chief of Police, Captains, Investigations Sergeant, Administrative Sergeant, Business Manager, and Administrative Secretary.

Street Crimes Unit - $800,000 – The SCU is a special emphasis, high-volume enforcement unit intended to impact street level crime and related neighborhood and community problems associated with street crime. This includes responding to citizen complaints regarding drug houses and neighborhood issues. Activities targeted by the SCU include theft of metals, nuisance abatement issues, property crimes, crimes against persons, assisting the CIU (Criminal Investigations Unit), assisting the Drug Task Force, working with Drug Court personnel (assisting with home visits), working with the Dept. of Corrections personnel (arrest of probation violators, etc) and an emphasis on traffic enforcement. This unit is comprised of 1 sergeant and 2 officers.

Criminal Justice Assistance Fund

Longview Police Department also operates several programs out of the Criminal Justice Assistance fund which primarily comes from grant sources. Those programs include for 2007-2008:

School Officer Unit - $400,000

Longview Police Department partners with the Longview School District to provide 2 police officers assigned to the Longview schools. School Officers respond to calls for service at the schools in addition to providing drug and crime prevention information to students and staff.

Criminal Justice Fund

Community Policing - $360,000 - This Community Policing program includes the remaining costs to operate the Satellite Office including the Crime Prevention Community Service Officer and Block Watch. This program also funds a portion of our Crime Analyst's salary. The Crime Analyst is responsible for providing statistical and spatial data analysis to our patrol officers, detectives and administration and responding to public requests for data. The Alley Gator program is headquartered out of the Satellite Office.

Crime Analysis- $165,000 - Our Crime Analysis Unit consists of 1 Crime Analyst who analyzes crime patterns and trends for the City of Longview, provides crime maps for the department and the public, and provides technical support for all of the various department equipment.

Parking Fund

The last budget fund for the Longview Police Department is the Parking Fund.

The 2007-2008 budget for this fund was $318,000. This fund generates revenue which offsets the cost to operate this program. There are 2 parking enforcement officers who are responsible for parking enforcement and issuing parking permits in downtown Longview.

Budget Summary

For our 2007 budget, the Police department was under budget by over 5.22%. Salary savings from vacant positions and the other costs associated with those positions such as uniforms, equipment etc. as well as the Guild contract settlement amount which was yet to be determined were largely responsible for this budget savings.

With the opening of the new larger jail in August 2006, we saw a large increase in our monthly jail bill. The added jail space allows law enforcement to book offenders for misdemeanors. These additional bookings and jail stays will result in higher jail bills than previous years.

Volunteer Hours

Volunteers assist Longview Police Department in several different ways.

First we have a Reserve Police Officer Program.

Reserve Officers assist with special events throughout the community such as the 4th of July, parades, car cruises and many other events. Longview Police Reserve Officers donated over 750 hours in 2007.

Second, volunteers staff our Satellite Office doing clerical support, data entry and many other tasks which provide assistance to the police department and the crime prevention efforts out of that office. Satellite Office volunteers donated over 2,400 hours in 2007, saving the city $34,000. We currently have 9 volunteers in this program.

Our third group of volunteers are the Alley Gators. The Alley Gators are a volunteer citizen patrol who patrol the streets and alleys of Longview looking for suspicious behavior to report to the dispatch center. The Alley Gators donated over 1150 hours of time this year. The Alley Gator patrol consists of 13 volunteers.

All 3 groups of volunteers donated nearly 4,400 hours of time to the police department. Thank you volunteers!

Longview Police Staffing
